Numeracy Night for Parents: Understanding Manipulatives Used in a Mathematics Classroom

This is the second of four sessions we will offer to parents interested in learning about the different types of manipulatives used by your child in developing math skills and understanding. The second session will focus on Subitizing and Domino's. Not sure what they are and how they fit into math - come and join us, roll up your sleeves and have some learning fun! The session is appropriate for parents with students at all grade levels. Pre-registration is required. Limited to 30 spots.

Date: February 4

Time: 6:15 - 7:30 p.m.

Location: 4906-50 Ave, St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Schools Board Office

Cost: none

Register by calling Paula Breitkreuz at 780.986.2500. Please register by January 31. Coffee and snacks will be provided.
